★ CHAMPIONS FOR EDUCATION & OPPORTUNITY ★

AFT Michigan recommends these candidates for the State Board of Education:

JOHN AUSTIN

John Austin was first elected to the State Board of Education in 2000 and was reelected in 2008. Austin currently serves as President of the State Board of Education, where he is a champion for working to strengthen our public schools, ensure safe, inclusive learning environments for students, and supporting educators. Austin has worked tirelessly to build economic and educational opportunity for the people of Michigan. Austin holds a Masters in Public Administration from Harvard's Kennedy School of Government and a Bachelor of Arts from Swarthmore College in Economics and Political Science. Austin is a member of the Lecturer Employees' Organization at the University of Michigan.

ISH AHMED

Ish Ahmed is running to serve on the State Board of Education for the first time in 2016, after spending a lifetime serving students, working families, and the community. Ahmed earned his Bachelor's Degree from the University of Michigan in secondary education with a minor in sociology. Ahmed cofounded the Arab Community Center for Economic and Social Services (ACCESS). He was appointed by former Governor Jennifer Granholm to serve as the Director of the Michigan Department of Human Services. Ahmed lives in Dearborn with his wife Margaret, who is a member of the Dearborn Federation of Teachers.

“

Please join me in voting for kids, schools, and public education on November 8th. The State Board of Education and the governing boards of these three universities have a significant impact on the education of our students. These candidates are strong voices for educators and they understand the vital role that unions play in supporting and enhancing public education.
